

Knowledge of Pythagoras, René Descartes, Sophie Germain, Alan Turing, and others will help to lift mathematics off the page and out of the calculator, and into the minds and imaginations of young readers.

SET INCLUDES SEVEN TITLES

Complete Set $202.65
Individual Titles $28.95

Set 978-1-59935-093-6

Profiles in Mathematics: Alan Turing
112 pages © 2009 978-1-59935-064-6

Profiles in Mathematics: Sophie Germain
128 pages © 2009 978-1-59935-062-2

Profiles in Mathematics: René Descartes
128 pages © 2009 978-1-59935-060-8

Profiles in Mathematics: Ancient Mathematicians
112 pages © 2009 978-1-59935-065-3

Profiles in Mathematics: Women Mathematicians
128 pages © 2009 978-1-59935-091-2

Profiles in Mathematics: Pierre de Fermat
128 pages © 2009 978-1-59935-061-5

Profiles In Mathematics: Carl Friedrich Gauss
112 pages © 2009 978-1-59935-065-3

TriState Books of Note Series

REVIEWS

"This nicely documented title bodes well for the Profiles in Mathematics series' stated aim to 'lift mathematics off the page and out of the calculator.'"

—Booklist on Alan Turing

"Well-written biography, complete with good-quality photos, gives insight into a man most readers know little about."

—School Library Journal on Alan Turing